YOUTH SERVICES CENTRE SCORES 'SWEET' ENDORSEMENT

COUNCIL'S Youth Services Centre scored a massive coup this month after singer/songwriter Gabriella Cilmi was named as venue ambassador.

Ms Cilmi, a former Dandenong resident, visited the centre and delivered a speech during a special event to mark the occasion.

Mayor Pinar Yesil was delighted with the news.

"It's great to see Gabriella is so willing to lend her time to supporting such a vital service for our city's youth," Cr Yesil said.

"The Youth Services Centre is a focal point for young people across the region who are looking to access a broad range of support services and leadership programs in a friendly setting."

The announcement came fresh on the heels of a centre sponsorship deal signed with Leader Community Newspapers.

Ms Cilmi, perhaps best known for popular track Sweet About Me, was plunged into the media spotlight last year after taking out six ARIA awards for her debut album Lessons to be Learned.
